

Situated on the east coast of Mauritius in the bay of Palmar, lies an oasis exuding serenity and an authentic joie de vivre: the Ambre hotel.

Built as a perfect blend of warm woods stone and thatch, the hotel provides a uniquely warm and intimate atmosphere which is perfectly reflected in the style of its charming patio, set out in luxurious nature - the ideal tropical refuge.

Located less than 1 hour drive from the airport and from the capital Port Louis, this 3 stars establishment stretches out on 1 km of white sandy beach bordered by a turquoise lagoon.

The classic island style of the exterior has been carried over into the design of the 298 spacious rooms and suites. Kept in warm, natural hues, these are furnished elegantly and with all amenities.

Hotel guests are offered a choice of four restaurants, serving theme buffets, gourmet cuisine, seafood specialties and Italian cuisine. Several bars offer snacks, light lunches and sandwiches as well as a variety of drinks, disco and live entertainment.

The Mini-club for kids and the teenager club offer age specific activities for the young ones and more relaxation or leisure time for the parents. Video games for children and teenagers are offered at the English pub.

Deep relaxation and well-being may be obtained in the Dolphin spa, the hotels health and beauty centre. Spread over 600 square meters, this centre is dedicated to Chinese energetic medicine but also offers various other treatments and massages.

A range of leisure and sports activities may be enjoyed by the hotel guests. Water sports embrace windsurfing, snorkelling, dinghy sailing, and water ski, while on land yoga, aerobics, table tennis and badminton are offered amongst others.

Several boutiques offer souvenirs, beach wear, newspapers and magazines. A tour operator's desk provides help and assistance for those who wish to discover the island.
