

Bougainville Hotel

Small and intimate with warm atmosphere

With its typical Mauritian style, Bougainville Hotel seems to have come out of a postcard. It lies in Trou d'Eau Douce on one of the most typical and unspoilt beaches of Mauritius and immediately opposite Ile aux Cerfs island, which ranks amongst the most visited offshore favourites of tourists and Mauritians alike.

The hotel is small, intimate with an exotic atmosphere that offers a warm welcome, which gives guests a feeling of relaxation. A perfect beginning for a tropical or active holiday!

Cool and breezy, the weather is perfect for sailing enthusiasts to enjoy their favourite water sports. Right on the beachfront it offers a stunning panorama with its huge white sandy beach drenched by a sea of infinite shades of blue and turquoise.

The 50 rooms have wood furniture and warm colours. Additionally, the hotel offers family rooms. They are built into several units that spread across rows of filao trees and colourful bougainvillea shrubs.

"La Licorne" restaurant is centrally placed between the swimming pool and the beach. Here local and international cuisine is served. Further, guests can enjoy exotic drinks and cocktails at the bar.

SEGA is performed once a week by a local group. The group have been hired by the hotel to entertain the hotel guests three times a week.
