

Le Suffren Hotel and Marina

A trendy alternative to do business in Mauritius

Upon entering this dynamic stylish hotel, you most probably think you did by mistake step on board of a cruise-liner and are about to leave port. The design of the Suffren hotel creates a modern version of a nautical ambience with a touch of comfort in a dreamlike atmosphere. A cruise-liner staircase is one of its dominant features. Soft, warm colours and a clear and minimalist interior design invite the guests to sit down, relax and unwind.

The shades and hues of the lobby are reflected in the interior of the rooms. Kept in soft, creamy colours with touches of wood, each of them is connected to the world by an individual internet access. The bathrooms are very nicely furnished.

The restaurant "la Boussole" sets the course for trendy Mauritian Cuisine with a touch of Mediterranean flavours, to create a refreshingly new dining experience.

If you need to relax after an exciting business day or sightseeing, you have a choice between the small beach created down by the hotel marina, the swimming pool or the "hottest spot on the waterfront": the Spinnaker's Concept Bar. At the latter, you will be spoiled with exotic drinks, while you enjoy the casual atmosphere or watch the latest news or exciting sport events on the multiple TV screens.

Anything to do with your business may be facilitated by the hotel's business centre, as this offers secretarial services, broadband internet access and a boardroom. Even the way to your business meetings downtown becomes much easier: with the hotel's water taxi you are guaranteed to not getting stuck in Port Louis' infamous early morning traffic jam and arriving downtown on time and in good spirits after the short refreshing boat ride. Of course you may also use the water taxi on your way to the shops, cinemas, duty free boutiques or the casino at Le Caudan, just across the bay.

And the hotel staff will be happy to organize sightseeing tours, shopping, golf, boat and catamaran cruises as well as other leisure and entertainment activities for you, to make your stay in Mauritius complete.
