

Sofitel Imperial Calm comfort and serenity

The Sofitel Imperial is one of the flagship luxury hotels of Mauritius. It stands alongside a beautiful white sandy beach and is surrounded by of a 9 hectare tropical park, 5 minutes from the village of Flic en Flac at the west side of the island.

Sheltered from rough trade winds and situated in the most privileged climate of Mauritius, the Sofitel combines a refined atmosphere, unique architecture and French hospitality with a great respect for the islands natural heritage. Nestled within an exotic garden amidst lush foliage, waterfalls and the songs of tropical birds, you may find calm, comfort and serenity.

149 rooms and suites are set in several two storey buildings. They are kept in an Asian style with furniture in clear warm and simple colours. The 42 new Imperial Garden Suites are a surrounding the Japanese garden complementing beautiful designed suites.

The substantial side of physical wellbeing is taken care of in numerous restaurants such as the Ravinala, offering varied menus and theme buffets as well as an American breakfast buffet at the poolside. The Tamassa beach serves local cuisine; the Ming court which overlooks the large swimming pool offers Chinese food every evening except Sunday. The Teppanyaki provides fine Japanese dinners, while the Tamassa restaurant is open on the beach for salads, grilled specialties and sandwiches during the day. The Tamassa bar is open till midnight, offering evening entertainment, same as "Le Kestrel", the Indian style bar by the pool.

The oriental Spa at the Sofitel is the domain of wellbeing, relaxation and the sheer pleasure of feeling alive. This 1000m² complex contains a Turkish bath, an outdoor Jacuzzi, a large swimming pool and a number of treatment rooms which are grouped harmoniously around it. It offers a complete range of exotically fragranced treatments and specific programmes designed to meet your requirements. Massages, baths with underwater music, Tai Chi, Yoga and a beauty parlour are just a few more of the features of this haven of beauty and peace.
