“Skip back in time”

Situated on a wind sheltered spot at the west coast of the island, this hotel faces the legendary surf beach of Tamarin bay. Although recently renovated, the Tamarin hotel will nevertheless surprise you with the carefully cultivated colourful 70's style of its interior design and furniture.

The cuisine matches the atmosphere of the hotel, offering tropical buffets as well as vegetarian and dietary dishes.

For those who seek harmony, peace of mind and want to free their body from stress, we recommend the in-house spa where the expert hands of health specialists will take care of them.

Under the roof of a wooden kiosk in the middle of the garden, the Crazy Fish Bar brings about the ambiance of a fisherman's village where you can enjoy Tamarin cocktails and many flavoured rums. Being the favourite hangout of some of the best musicians of the island, this unique little hotel spoils you with a top musical entertainment, varying from delightful jazzy to rhythmic Sega.

Staying at the Tamarin Hotel will stimulate a curious mind; the Tamarin area is more than a famous surf spot and was a legendary destination in the 60th. The village of Tamarin at the bay and next to the Tamarin River provides the settings for local contact and with its salt pans; Matelo Tower at Black River is some of the historical spices. Nature lovers will enjoy the lagoon, the home of dolphins and porpoises some of the best deep fishing waters of the world are nearby. Diving conditions are excellent.
