“Luxury redefined”

This legendary 5 star hotel, member of the “Leading Small Hotels of the World”, is located at Turtle Bay on the North West coast of Mauritius. It encompasses 20 acres of lush tropical gardens, 600 meters of oceanfront and is surrounded by a turquoise lagoon; a majestic range of green mountains can be seen on the horizon.

The unusual architecture of this exclusive property has been created by well-renowned Thai architect Lek Bunnag. Mr. Bunnag was influenced and inspired in his work by Mauritian heritage and culture.

Interior designer H.L. Lim from Singapore has sought to create a serene décor by using soft and subtle coloured natural fabrics and timbers, thus creating a light and soothing atmosphere.

Indigenous materials were used as much as possible to capture the spirit of the island and to provide an environmentally friendly approach. Sugar cane thatch covers the roofs; volcanic boulders have been put into the walls of the gardens which boast tropical plants and shrubs.

All the rooms and villas overlook the azure lagoon. They are very airy and spacious and furnished in unique and precious style. The large bathrooms have a vanity counter, a sunken bath and a separate shower. All bathrooms overlook private tropical gardens.

The villas have their own private courtyards and an elevated dining pavilion with a great view on the Indian Ocean.

Two restaurants and three bars cater for the culinary wellbeing of the guests. They offer European, Creole and Oriental cuisine. You may dine under the stars or enjoy spectacular sunsets with a tropical drink at the bar. The hotel has a very fine collection of wines and spirits.

Light meals, tropical sorbets and cocktails will be served at the two swimming pools in a casual atmosphere during the day.

Voted as “the best spa worldwide” by the European Spa academy, the Oberoi spa offers a wide range of holistic treatments such as body massages and scrubs with 100% natural products. The treatments are drawn from Ayurveda, aromatherapy and Eastern techniques.

Water sports such as snorkelling, water skiing, windsurfing, parasailing and scuba diving can be enjoyed in the lagoon off Turtle Bay, the Marin Nature Reserve which borders the hotel. The hotel can also organize sunset cruises, catamaran excursions and big game fishing.
