

THE SAINT GERAN "The eminent haven of elegance"

This unique hotel belongs, together with the legendary Touessrok, to the One & Only resorts group and thus to the Leading Hotels of the World.

It is the aim of this group to provide in today's world where so many things are copied and becoming the same, places where one can still experience the unpackaged thrill of original discovery.

The St. Geran is one of those places, a rare jewel in the Indian Ocean, waiting to be discovered by you. Situated at the peninsula of Belle Mare with its long white sand beach, the St Gerans' terraced and balconied rooms face out privately to the Oceanside. The sixty acres of terrain surrounding it encompass tropical gardens, poolside and ocean dining. A Givenchy Spa, many water sports facilities, the Gary Player golf course and the Peter Burwash International Tennis Centre complement the relaxing atmosphere of the hotel and contribute to a unique holiday experience under the sway of countless coconut palms.

The hotel takes its name from the novel "Paul et Virginie" by Bernardin de St. Pierre and is located only a short distance away from the place where the unlucky ship, the original St. Geran was wrecked so many years ago.

The junior suites are influenced by Dutch and French colonial style combined with eclectic European comfort. They all offer a magnificent view over the lagoon, feature King- or Queen sized beds, spacious dressing rooms and provide an ample and intimate setting. A personalized butler is on duty 24h a day. The Ocean suites have separate roomy lounges private dining rooms and two secluded terraces, leading off the master bedroom. A mini patio with open air shower backs on to the beach. Inside, draped curtains frame grand bay windows, while upholstered plush sofas offer comfortable seating. The villa is a veritable island home with beautiful views of the Indian Ocean, a private pool and a spacious terrace. The master bedroom features a four poster bed and the second bedroom two Queen –size beds. Both bathrooms have shower and Jacuzzi. A kitchen equipped with premium quality china, crystal and silverware and a spacious living/dining room are at the guest's disposal, as well as a personal butler.

At Le Saint Geran, dining is an experience of the best of the world. The main restaurant, "La Terrasse" offers a variety of local and international specialties. Breakfast buffet, light lunches and table d' hote or theme dinners with evening entertainment are offered daily. An extensive wine list and cigar selection is available as well.
