

Les Cocotiers

The calm and charming little haven

Situated in the Northwest of Mauritius on the small beach of Tombeau Bay and only 10 minutes away from its bustling capital city Port Louis, this little hotel provides a welcoming and charming environment. Surrounded by an exotic garden, Les Cocotiers is built in a tropical island style. The hotel is ideal for those who wish to explore the typical markets and shops of Port Louis, as well as a good departure point for the discovery of Pamplemousses gardens and many other places of interests found around the locality.

The reception area is kept in warm colours; the 48 rooms are furnished and decorated likewise. They are equipped with all the amenities plus air condition, and balcony or terrace. Small paths lead to the rooms, which are grouped around the main building, the restaurant and the pool.

The terraced restaurant offers a beautiful view over the beach and the Indian Ocean. All buildings are thatch roofed. Combined with the warm colours of the natural lava stone used for the main buildings and the vibrant green of the lush garden surrounding them, Les Cocotiers is a perfect little paradise of peace and serenity.

Guests may relax at the natural beach or in the shade of parasols by the pool. The small restaurant offers not only a nice beach view but also delicious breakfast buffets, a la carte lunch and afternoon tea with pancakes as well as dinner buffets or island style menus "table d'hote" with a choice of local dishes in the evenings.

The pool bar provides salads and sandwiches by the pool at lunchtime and welcomes guests for happy hour from 17h00 to 19h00 daily.

A Sega live show and a barbecue take place every Saturday. Once a week, a live band and a Mauritian buffet contribute further to the entertainment provided by the hotel.

Apart from relaxing at the pool, guests may spend their leisure time snorkelling or swimming in the turquoise waters of the Indian Ocean. Snorkel equipment and beach towels are available at the reception.
